

Better homes, better places, better lives

Devon & Cornwall Housing Trust is the parent company for Devon & Cornwall Housing group. Our group comprises Devon & Cornwall Housing Association, Penwith Housing Association and Tor Homes. We are a diverse and dynamic group of organisations, providing housing, support and regeneration services. We employ 650 staff, managing 17,000 properties throughout Cornwall and Devon.

Group news

Talking about my generation...

St Therese's sheltered housing scheme hosted Marlborough primary school in an open day that was as much about the past as it was the future.

14 July 2010

Affordable housing open day

Wish you could buy your own home? 7 July 2010

Affordable housing in Plymouth backed by the HCA

Barne Barton in Plymouth is to benefit from a new high quality affordable housing development, thanks to a grant of almost 5m from the Homes and Communities Agency (HCA).

15 June 2010

Saving energy, saving money.

New single utility contract saves tenants thousands of pounds... 10 March 2010

Update 2010

Click here to see our new publication Update 2010, with news and features across our work including:

- more new homes than ever before
- Dawn French pays a visit
- responding to our residents
- a green future
- an interview with Group Chief Executive, Paul Crawford
- and more!